General Telephone Company Filed For Increase In Revenues

General Telephone Company today filed an application with the Alabama Public Service Commission for an increase in revenues.

The company did not propose a date for making revised telephone rates effective because of the current nationwide freeze on wages and prices.

W. L. Entz, state manager of General's Alabama operations, said he expected that the commission would place the request from other utilities already on file.

"Utility companies customarily set a date on which they would like any revision of rates to become effective, but we have not requested any date for a change in rates in view of the moratorium on wages and prices instituted by the President's order," he said.

"Preparation of a request such as this requires many months of study and analysis, and we are filing this application with the commission as the result of these studies," he said.

The company's application is based on cost levels and economic conditions experienced by the firm during a period which ended May 31, 1971, the manager said.

"Despite our best efforts to control costs through improved technology and prudent management, expenses have risen faster than revenues," Entz said. "The increase we have requested is the minimum amount required to produce a reasonable return on our investment."

Entz noted that the company's previously announced program to eliminate all multi-party service in its operating areas is progressing on schedule. Fourteen exchanges have been completed while eleven additional ones are in progress now. The remaining fourteen exchanges are scheduled to be worked during 1972. This one program alone requires gross expenditures of over $21 million.

EHS REPORT

ANONYMOUS SENIOR 1972

I wonder how old God is? Who knows? Older than the world, I suppose. The world is old (So I am told) But when it was new-- Why God was, too! I bet God liked to color, even though He had to make His own colors--and coloring book. He did a good job, too--just look! Look at the world, God's coloring book! Look at the colors, look! Just look! Look how many shades of blue, Zillions of shades of green, too!

First everything was newspaper white. Then, God colored people...

He colored them yellow, black and brown. Red, white, and shades in between. But nobody did God color green. Isn't it funny, too, That God didn't color people blue?

Then he got tired of coloring humans So he moved to mammals. First, solid colors--gray donkeys, brown camels, And now for the fun! A black and white zebra, anyone? Fancy stripes.

The world is old--and so is God. The world is beautiful, though isn't it odd The colors of things? Almost I'd say That God was playing on Creation day! Anonymous Senior 1972

SENIOR OF THE WEEK

This week we would like to give our congratulations to Lyn Marsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Marsh, as Senior of the Week.

Like most all girls, Lyn's main interest is a boy, Keith Lewis. Her other interests include hunting, skiing and going on picnics.

Lyn's subjects this year are English (Beowulf, Advanced Grammar), short-hand auditing, typing II, Bookkeeping, and Home Ec. II. According to Lyn, school is great, although if our school had more spirit and cleaner bathrooms it would be even better.

Lyn has various memberships in clubs including FHA, Beta Club, Science Club and Parliamentarian of the Junior Music Club. Miss Marsh has also been honored to receive the Liberty Bell Award.

Opinions of the new reporting procedure expressed by various students, as noted in the following quotes:

Lyn Donaldson--less tedious to carry a report card home, thus less time to be fussed at.

Van English--I'll only get $4 this year--(he gets a silver dollar every reporting date--now we'll have 4 reporting dates instead of six).

Courtney Cannon--It means less time to pull up low grades.

Pond Dunaway--331/3 less punishment, Jim Williams--We can fall English only four times instead of six.

City Cheerleader for 2 years for the Elba Tigers. As a senior, she's vice president of the Junior Music Club, in the Pep Club, E Club and on the advertising staff for the annual.

Debbie enjoys most all activities: swimming, skiing, powderpuff football, tumbling, music and most football games.

Some of the most interesting events Debbie has enjoyed most in her life--time are touring Disneyland and Yellow Stone Nat. Park, parachuting from a training tower and being in Alaska at the time of the 1964 Earthquake.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stivers. She has one sister, Cynthia, and one brother, Joseph. She would like to attend the University of Alabama after graduating and major in Physical Education.

We would like to wish Debbie a lot of luck in representing Elba in the Peanut Festival later this month.

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

The Student of the Month of October is Debra Bludis.

Debra is a junior and is a member of the French Club, President, of the Science Club and Captain of the Color Guard of the Elba High Marching Tilters.

Her pet peeve is not having anyone to talk to at recess.

Her hobbies are twirling her sabbie sports and Larry.

After Debra finishes high school she plans to go to college, but she hasn't decided on which college yet.

Debra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bludis.

Debra, we the students of Elba High School congratulate you.

Senior Class Elects Officers For 1971-72 School Year

The Senior Class met this week and chose the following students as their officers:

Joe Prior, president; Warren Walker, vice-president; Diane Stewart, Jones, secretary; Bill Scarbrough, treasurer.

WHAT IF--When you told your teacher you lost your homework, she believed you.

Mr. Hickman was principal.

Mr. Hudson was still here to guard the parking lot at lunch.

Mack King didn't have any white shoes.

Mrs. Berry ever dressed out during P.E.

Every girl's hair was as straight as Vickie Grantham's when it rained.

The Sound Effects had a louder amplifier.

Student Council To Lead Homecoming

The Student Council will lead the homecoming activities this year at Elba High School. They are asking everyone's support in making this the best homecoming yet.

The Geneva Panthers have been selected as the homecoming opponent this year. This rivalry seems to build each year because each team always plays good hard-nosed football.

The parade which is scheduled for 2:15 that afternoon will feature Elba's marching band, various civic clubs, the homecoming queen and her court, and a number of floats. The floats will be judged and the top three will be featured in a pregame ceremony that evening.

A dance featuring the "Sweet Youngins" will follow the game. The dance will be semi-formal and the students are asked to abide by just that.

With a parade, a ballgame between two S.A.C. powerhouses, and a dance following, homecoming should be a gala event at EHS.

Coffee County Has Solid Waste Disposal System

A countywide sanitary landfill is becoming more and more of a reality in Coffee County. Specifics for equipment to operations for equipment to operate a countywide solid waste pickup program are being completed. The county has leased a 10-acre plot of land. Approximately 100, four-cubic yard containers will be located in strategic areas in the county. The goal is to serve all of the people.

Tentative plans call for twice weekly pickups of solid waste in the rural areas by one man operating a truck and packer body. The regular pickups will be made by the four municipalities in the county and the county will be the sanitary landfill site.

This site, which should last at least 10 to 15 years, has been approved by the Alabama Health Department. A road has been built to the dump, and site preparation will be completed.

The estimated cost for the landfill site with a bulldozer, this site, which should last at least 10 to 15 years, has been approved by the Alabama Health Department. A road has been built to the dump, and site preparation will be completed.

According to Judge Sawyer, the two-year grace period for compliance with the Solid Waste Disposal Act expired on September 12. This act serves notice that, following September 12, all open dumping or burning of garbage will be illegal.

Legal and responsible governmental or private agencies will be subject to possible legal complaints, Judge Sawyer said.

are providing this service at a great expense. It will improve the appearance and sanitation of our county. We expect all of the people to take pride in the fact that we have made provisions to take care of their solid waste. I think the people will be proud of it when it becomes operational.

Pickup sites are being set up at stores, crossroads and other locations suitable for dumping the waste material where the packer truck will have room to get completely off the road to pick up trash.

County Extension Chairman Tom Casaday, G. L. Edwards of the Soil Conservation Service and Leslie Mullins, County Engineer, have cooperated with the county governing body to help develop plans.

Casaday said, "I'm sure that folks in the rural areas will cooperate in placing their waste in the containers. They want the county to be pretty and neat, too."

As of October 1, Coffee County farmers who buy feeder pigs to go back to their home feed lot will not be required to have them treated with serum for hog cholera. In this day of low prices for hogs, the savings will be significant.

In Coffee County and in the Wiregrass in that very few hog cholera cases have been administering the program according to the state law. This will save the farmers about a dollar a head. We are fortunate.

PLANNING AHEAD "I never think of the future," said Albert Einstein. "I am sure that this noted scientist was not speaking for farmers and was not thinking of planting peanuts in the years ahead."

Folks who are going to make the high yields in the future will be those who plan for them. I heard of one man who made almost 28 tons of peanuts on 12 acres that had been in Bahiagrass. We are not advocating plowing up Bahiagrass land to plant peanuts, but we do recommend rotating and heavy fertilization of crops preceding peanuts. This is best done by soil testing.

4-H LEADER FORUM Six Coffee County leaders will be attending the 4-H Leadership Forum at Rock Eagle, Georgia, beginning Tuesday of this week. This is the third year that leaders from Coffee County including Virginia Greene and Dan Presley will be attending this program.

Volunteer leaders attending this year are Mrs. Macie Arnette of Mt. Pleasant, Mrs. Don Olsen of Enterprise, Major and Mrs. Maurice Head of Enterprise.

We are grateful to the officers and directors of the Coffee County Farm Bureau for making financial arrangements for this trip.

MONEY MANAGEMENT If you are interested in buying and financing a home, you are cordially invited to attend the fifth session of the Money Management Show.

The program will be held at the Enterprise State Junior College at 7:00 p.m. in Room A-112. This short course is free of charge.

ORNAMENTALS Terry Wilbourn, our specialist in ornamental horticulture at Auburn, will be working with nursery.

ment and other individuals Wednesday. He is also going to speak to the Flower Lovers Club of which Mrs. Virginia Brand is president. They will be meeting at the home of Mrs. Bob Ella on Cherry Hill Road in Enterprise.

This is a sort of calm before the storm in ornamentals because most folks prefer to wait until the first frost to buy plants.

BUILDING A FLOAT... These teenagers were not getting in trouble last Sunday afternoon any parent could rest assured. While parents often worry when their children are riding down the highway, riding horses or any of the other million things this group enjoys, they could relax Sunday afternoon. This is only part of the large group of Elba teenagers that gave up an afternoon of recreation or rest to build floats for the upcoming homecoming parade to be held Thursday evening.

Celebration Starts Today

Homecoming at Elba High School promises to be a memorable event this year. The parade will be held on Thursday evening at 6:30 instead of the usual Friday afternoon time. Local merchants are tying in with this annual event and are staying open until 10 p.m. and offering special bargains during the evening.

Also on the calendar for Thursday are band concerts by the Elba Band and Ft. Rucker bands. This immediately follows the parade. Then comes the wrestling at 7:30. This is on the East side of the square.

At 8:30 the Sound Effect, a local Rock Group will play on the South Side of the Square and the Southern Drifters, another local group, will play for a square dance on the North side of the square. All these events are free.

The City of Elba has offered free parking all day Thursday. Many of the stores will be giving away free prizes during this time. All the entertainment is free and open to the public. The merchants are rolling out the welcome mat!

School Gets

Bond Money

The Elba City Board of Education met with Mayor and City Council on October 5 and October 7, and asked for $200,000.00 to help build a Middle School and an Area Vocational School. Bids for these two buildings were opened on September 16, and the lowest bid was $603,000.00. The School Board only had $400,000.00 available to build these two projects and $100,000.00 of this was Federal matching money for the Area Vocational building. If this building is not constructed the Elba City Board will lose the $100,000.00.

The City Officials agreed to borrow this money and pledged a portion of the one cent (1¢) sales tax to retire the debt.

The Elba City Board of Education expressed their sincere appreciation to the City Officials for their help and feel that more people will benefit from the sales tax in this way than any other way it could be used.

The contract has been let for these two buildings and they will be ready for the children at the beginning of the next school term.

Federal Judge Says Commissioners Wrong

Federal Judge Frank M. Johnson did as was expected last week and ruled that the present form of the Coffee County Commission is unconstitutional. However, rather than jumping in and MONDAY TO BE A HOLIDAY HERE

Monday, October 25 will be observed as a holiday by state, federal and county employees.

The Post Office will be closed all day as will the Coffee County Courthouse. Postmaster Robert Cooper noted that there will be no mail delivery on the holiday, nor will there be any window service at the post office. The usual holiday receipts and dispatches of mail will be observed with receipt of mail from Dothan at 7:30 a.m. and dispatches to Dothan at 9:30 a.m. and to Evergreen at 10 p.m.

Probate Judge James Sawyer noted that all elected county officials had asked the Commissioners for permission to consider this date a legal holiday with all offices being closed during the day.

WILLIE'S WITT

One of man's greatest faults is not being able to recognize his faults.

OPEN HOUSE was held last week at the Elba Elementary School. Parents were invited in to view the facilities and to confer with teachers about the progress and problems of their children. A large number of parents took advantage of the opportunity.
